- 10. TELEPHONE VISITATION. When appropriate to the age of the child(ren), both parties shall allow liberal telephone visitation, at reasonable hours, while their child(ren) is with the other parent.
- 11. OTHER VISITATION. The parties agree that liberal visitation should be encouraged, and that the Non-CustodialParent shall have such other visitation as may be reasonably agreed upon between the Custodial Parent and the Non-CustodialParent.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

1. Travel Beyond The State of Domicile. If the child(ren) is/are to be beyond the boundaries of the State of Oklahoma, for whatever reason, the parent with whom the child(ren) is/are residing at the time shall notify the other parent, reasonably in advance, of the current address and telephone number of each such location where the minor child(ren) can be reached. All trips outside the State of Oklahoma shall not conflict with the other Party's right of custody or visitation unless prior written consent is obtained from that party.

Neither party may permanently remove the minor child(ren) from the State of Oklahoma without sixty (60) days prior written notice to the other party and full compliance with the provisions of 43 O.S. §112.3.

If a parent is absent from Tulsa Oklahoma, that parent shall provide the other parent with a telephone number where that parent may be contacted in case an emergency arises.

- 2. Extracurricular Activities The minor child(ren) has/have the right to participate in regularly-scheduled extracurricular activities appropriate for his/her/their age. Such extracurricular activities may include, but are not limited to, the following: T-Ball, baseball, soccer, football, track & field, tennis, golf, gymnastics, dancing, band and music lessons. Both parents have the right to be informed as to the schedule of such activities in which the child(ren) is/are involved and both shall be entitled to attend such activities. Both parents shall make a good faith effort to transport the minor child(ren) to activities on time and in appropriate attire even if such activities occur during visitation time with that parent. If the parent is not attending such activity, the parent who drops the child(ren) off for such activity has the duty to ensure that the child(ren) is/are picked up from such activity. Other than such regularly-scheduled activities, neither parent shall make any other commitments for the minor child(ren) during a time when the minor child(ren) would be with the other parent without first reaching an agreement with the other parent about such agreement.
- 3. Costs of Transportation The visiting parent shall be responsible for their respective costs of transportation regarding visitation, except as otherwise set out herein.
- 4. Visitation Notices The Petitioner/Plaintiff and the Respondent/Defendant shall give one another forty-eight (48) hours notice if unable to exercise his or her weekend visitation except as otherwise provided herein. Additionally, the Petitioner/Plaintiff and the Respondent/Defendant shall give one another one week's notice of his or her intent not to exercise a right to visit on any alternate holiday. The minor child(ren) is/are not to be used as a messenger for visitation notices. This provision is not intended to deny or limit either parent's ability to make plans with the minor child(ren), but is intended to ensure that the scheduling of the plans is done directly between the parents.
- 5. Address and Telephone Numbers. Each parent has the right to know the address and telephone number of the other parent at all times. Each parent shall keep the other parent informed at all times as to his or her current telephone number and residence address and the telephone number and residence address of the minor child(ren).
- 6. Telephone Access. Each parent has the right to contact the minor child(ren) by telephone at the residence of the other parent with reasonable frequency, during reasonable hours, and for reasonable duration. Unless an emergency arises: (a) "reasonable frequency" is hereby defined as once per day; (b) "reasonable bours" is hereby defined as those hours beginning at 8:00 A.M. and ending at 8:00 P.M., and (c) "reasonable duration" is hereby defined as no more than one-half (½) hour per call.
- 7. Records. Each parent has the right to complete access to all of the minor child(ren)'s school, medical, dental and psychological records. Exchange of school and activity schedules is an obligation of both parents and both parents shall copy for each other all information received regarding the aforementioned activities. Further, each parent is responsible for obtaining information easily available to that parent. Neither parent shall in any way obstruct or hinder the other parent's right or ability to seek and obtain information pertaining to the minor child(ren).
- 8. Photographs. The parent who receives notice of the school picture schedule or sports/activity picture schedule shall timely and promptly notify the other parent and shall provide the other parent with an opportunity to obtain copies of all school and/or sports photographs or studio portraits taken of the minor child(ren).
- 9. Medical Conditions. Each parent has the right to know of any significant illness, sickness, emergency, or other circumstances seriously affecting the health or welfare of the minor child(ren) sustained by such child(ren). "Significant" is defined as any such condition which would require the minor child(ren) to miss school or to be taken to a health care provider. Each parent shall notify the other parent immediately of any significant illness or injury affecting the minor child(ren) that may arise while the minor child(ren) is/are in his or her physical custody.
- 10. Normal, Regular & Routine Matters. During the period each parent has physical custody or is exercising visitation with the minor child(ren), that parent shall decide all normal, regular and routine matters concerning said child(ren)'s welfare, and that each parent shall cooperate with the other in maintaining a mutually supportive arrangement regarding such normal, regular and routine matters.
- 11. Drug-Free Environment. Neither parent shall excessively use or excessively consume alcohol, nor use non-prescription illegal narcotics and/or drugs while in the presence of the minor child(ren).
